Do it now and get a great price!

Do it now and help ensure that the Forestburgh Playhouse and the Forestburgh Theatre Arts Center will remain the theatrical highlight of your summer!

Not Exactly Sure What a Subscription Involves?

A subscription, also known as a season ticket, is an opportunity to purchase a series of 6 (or 7 if you purchase a Supersizer) tickets to summer productions at the Forestburgh Playhouse at a discounted price compared to the price of the tickets purchased individually at the Box Office. Three types of Season Tickets are available: Classic Season Tickets, SmartSaver Season Tickets, and Flex Season Tickets.

A Classic Season Ticket are sold as the same seat on the same night for each show. Since most of the shows at the Playhouse run for two weeks, Classic Season Tickets are sold on the basis of ticket series good for the first or second week. For example, a classic season ticket holder might have his or her tickets for the first Wednesday, seats C101 and 102. This means that this subscriber will attend each show on the first Wednesday of the run, and will sit in seats C101 and 102. Ticket exchanges are permitted if a subscriber needs to attend a different performance. A SmartSaver Season Ticket works in the same way, except the discount is 50% and seating is only in row S, T, and U.

A Flex Season Ticket is simply a series of six ticket vouchers good for any performance. Flex tickets can be used in any combination and for any performance. For example, a flex ticket holder who buys 2 Flex tickets has in effect purchased 12 admissions to the Playhouse. He or she might use 2 tickets for a Wednesday evening performance of the first show, use 4 tickets for a Thursday evening performance for the second show, skip the third show altogether, and use the remaining 4 tickets for the fourth show. Unlike Classic Season Ticket holders who have the same seats for the same performance each show, Flex Ticket holders need to call the Box Office and make reservations each time they want to use their Flex Tickets. Flex Ticket holders cannot be guaranteed a ticket if a performance has sold out.

What are the extra benefits of subscribing?

- A discount of 21% over regular Box Office prices
- Ability to exchange tickets for other performances
- Priority seating at cabaret and automatic cabaret reservations, if desired (CARS)
- Better seats than individual ticket buyers. Season Tickets are assigned and sent before the Box Office even opens to the public. Since we are currently almost 50% subscribed, the best seats at the Playhouse are always already gone before individual ticket buyers get a chance to purchase tickets.
- Automatic renewal of the same seats for the next season

Summer Season 2011

Special Extra!	Idaho! June 1–12	Pre-Broadway try-out right here at the Forestburgh Playhouse! Winner of the 2008 Best Musical at the New York Musical Theatre Festival, this Broadway-bound musical comedy, with the accent on comedy, is perfect for anyone who loves Oklahoma! and Rodgers & Hammerstein, with a touch of Spamalot!
	Choose one or both of these comedies	Shirley Valentine June 14–19
Biloxi Blues June 21–26		Neil Simon at the peak of his comic power has written a heart-warming coming of age story based on his own experiences in the army. This companion piece to Brighton Beach Memoirs and Broadway Bound has plenty of laughs that Simon is famous for, along with a dramatic story sure to touch you deeply.
Core Musical Season	Man of La Mancha June 28–July 10	"To Dream the Impossible Dream!" Don Quixote comes alive in Broadway's timeless musical, Man of La Mancha , which tells the romantic journey of a knight who sets out to right all wrongs and win the heart of the woman of his dreams. This musical classic is filled with soaring music, romance, and comedy.
	Jekyll &amp; Hyde July 12–24	A true musical theatre phenomenon, Jekyll &amp; Hyde , based on Robert Louis Stevenson's classic story about a brilliant doctor whose experiments with human personality create a murderous counterpart, is brought to life with a brilliant musical score highlighted by "This is the Moment." Not to be missed!
	The Buddy Holly Story July 26–August 7	The Buddy Holly Story tells the story of how Buddy Holly became the world's top recording artist and features over 20 of Buddy Holly's greatest hits including "Peggy Sue", "That'll Be The Day", "Oh Boy", "Everyday", "Maybe Baby", "Raining In My Heart", and even Ritchie Valens' "La Bamba."
	Chicago August 9–21	Yes, it's true. The Broadway blockbuster that has played on Broadway since 1996 and is still going strong will bring its own special razzle dazzle to the Forestburgh Playhouse stage. A great story, great dance, and a Kander and Ebb score brimming with hits! Recommended for mature audiences.
	Ain't Misbehavin' August 23–Sept 4	The outrageously comic and musical soul of 1930s Harlem lives on in this rollicking, swinging, finger-snapping revue that is still considered one of Broadway's best. And every song is a hit: "I'm Gonna Sit Right Down And Write Myself A Letter," "Two Sleepy People," "I Can't Give You Anything But Love."

CLASSIC SEASON TICKET POLICY: THE SMALL PRINT

A Classic Season Ticket is the same seat for each show. All orders are filled according to the date of receipt. Season Tickets may be exchanged no less than 24 hours prior to performance of the same production, depending on availability. No partial refunds on Season Tickets. Subscribers are guaranteed after-show cabaret reservations on the night they attend the theatre and receive priority renewal of their same or other locations for the 2012 season. Special 2011 Subscription price ends midnight September 15th. Only subscribers renewing their same location are guaranteed specific seats at time of renewal. The Playhouse reserves the right to move Straight Renewal Subscriptions one seat to the left or to the right to even off a row. 2010 locations will be held until Oct. 31, 2010 at which time all unrenewed seats are released to changing and new subscribers based on order priority.

FLEX TICKET POLICY

A Flex Ticket Subscription is a discounted ticket available to patrons who purchase six (or multiples of six) tickets at a time, in advance. Flex Ticket holders must call the Box Office in advance to reserve their seats. Seats will be reserved for Flex Ticket patrons based on availability. No partial refunds of Flex Tickets. There is an additional charge for all ticket exchanges into a more expensive series. Purchase of a Flex Ticket does not necessarily guarantee patrons tickets if a show is sold out. A Flex Ticket reservation is non-exchangeable less than 24 hours before curtain time. A 2011 Flex Ticket is only good through September
